

Contents

Introduction 11

The mosaic outside Rome 11 • The flow of history 14

The desert and the delta

Egypt

The Paradise of the Desert 18 • Scarabs, reincarnation and the river of death and life 20 • Society and the rhythm of the river 23 • The cities and rivers that disappeared 25 • Alexander the Great's Nile city 28 • The genesis of philosophy 30 • The journey of Caesar and Cleopatra up the Nile 32 • The flight of Jesus and Mary up the Nile delta 35 • The Bible: God punishes those who say they own the Nile 37 • Islam conquers the Nile delta 39 • The Caleph's letter to the Nile 41
Napoleon on the march 42 • Critique of orientalism 48 • 'The Battle of the Nile': Paris against London 51 • The battle for the Rosetta stone: thieves against thieves 52 • The Albanian soldier who became the reformer of the Nile 56 • The giraffe that sailed on the river and went to Paris 59 • The Norwegian star runner who died on his way to the source of the Nile 60 • The canal between the seas 61 • Gustave Flaubert and Henrik Ibsen 'up the Nile from Cairo' 64
Axes and occupation 70 • Where Egyptians used water as a war-weapon 71
At the crossroads between history, river and sea 73

Towards Karnak and the Nile falls

The city the Arabs founded and the British took 75 • A nilometer without anything to measure 79
Conservative colonialists as the vanguard of the revolution 81 • A river as stick or carrot 85 • The Muslim Brotherhood wants to 'ensure the source of the Nile' 86 • A role as expected of a hero 87 • The Suez Crisis and the dam 90 • The Soviet Union as moderniser of the Nile 93 • 'The Lady of the Nile' 95 • 'Adrift on the Nile' and a Nobel Prize winner 96 • A waterfall in the desert 98 • Thebes and Karnak in danger 99
The valley of the Kings and ideals of beauty 100 • Where travel literature began 101
The old Aswan as a symbol of modernity 105 • Downstream complex 107
Egypt's gods and eternal life 109 • Feats now and in Antiquity 112 • 'Revolt on the Nile' and the hydraulic dilemma 113

Nubia and the country where the rivers meet

Sudan

Five hundred kilometres of artificial lake in the desert 116 • Nubia – gold and character 117
Muhammed Ali's river war 121 • The politics of geography 123 • The explorers who disappeared 125 • Migrations and sandcastles 126 • Where the great rivers meet 127
'The bearer of light' in Khartoum 129 • The dance in the sand 133 • Time and the daughter of the river 135 • Queen Victoria's river war 136 • British massacres on the banks of the Nile 139 • The unknown engineer and a historic report 142 • The Blue Nile and the explorer from Larvik 144 • Sudan's possibilities and the birth of a hydraulic state 146
A white-spotted gekko and the prophet 149 • Winston Churchill: 'Munich is situated on the Nile' 150 • Sudan and Egypt share the Nile 152 • Empty the whisky in the river! 154
An Islamic coup 156 • Osama bin Laden as Nile entrepreneur 157 • A new city in the middle of the world's longest kiss 160 • Sudan rattles the Nile weapon 161 • Thank Allah for the dam (and let them eat the arrest order) 163 • Nubia and Nile control 164
The lion's share 166 • the granary of the Middle East and Kosti 167

The swamp and the new state

South Sudan

The land of distances 171 • A dictatorial river 174 • The Nilotes' water-world and a river chieftain 176 • A thread that bends everywhere 177 • Arab intruders from the north 180 • European adventurers 182 • Europe on the edge of war in South Sudan? 183 • A holy lake 186 • On travelling in the swamp and Africa's development 188
Jonglei – a new aqueduct northwards 191 • Razzias and peace 193 • 'A human zoo for anthropologists to study' 195 • World-class colonial research 197

'The Nile Republic' – a dream 198 • Stop the canal! 200 • In the shadow of the rainforest 203
The new Nile state and George W. Bush 204 • Granary? 207 • Statehood and hydrodiplomacy 209

The country with the large lakes

Uganda 000

The race 212 • The adventurer and his slave wife 214 • 'Discoverers' or discoverers? 216 • Naked resolution and scientific evangelism 218
The African royal seat at the source of the Nile 221 • The arrival of the missionaries 223
Crucial for Egypt's future 227 • London takes over power of the Nile lakes 229
Where the animals rule (at man's mercy) 231 • Waterfalls and images of 'the others' and 'us' 233 • 'Baker of the Nile' 234 • Winston Churchill in the jungle 235
Bogart, Hepburn and Hemingway at the Nile falls 237 • A Nile empire full of inner contrasts 240 • Owen Falls – 'The Beginning of Uganda' 243 • A British prime minister as a water warrior 246 • Idi Amin at the Nile clapping at well-fed crocodiles 248 • The woman and the water that was to make warriors invulnerable to bullets 251 • Stories of holy water 253 • The wizard at the Nile and the Lord's army of resistance 254 • New discoveries – oil in the Nile! 258 • The inland sea in the heart of Africa 260 • Darwin's well, the theory of evolution and mass annihilation 263
Speke Resort, Museveni and the Nile 265 • The industrial revolution comes to Uganda 267 • The world's largest swarms of insects and the Nile's time 268

East of the inland sea

Kenya og Tanzania

The train through the country to the source of the Nile 273 • Sleeping sickness and colonialism 274
The railway line that created a country 275 • The Asian and the Jewish question 278
The white tribe on the highland 280 • A Nile state without a nation 283
Olympic champions from 'the stony river' 287 • Masai Mara 289 • Luoene and Barack Obama's journey 291 • The Kenya and Nile question 295 • The cradle of mankind 297 • The stone at the water's edge and Bismarck 299 • An unknown European naval battle on a Nile lake 302 • Colonial agreements and the present of the Nile 304 • The land of gift economy 307
Digging for gold 309 • Where the gnus cross 310 • What is the Nile? 311 • Pumps the lake and defies Egypt 313

Upstream in Central Africa

Rwanda, The Democratic Republic Congo, and Burundi

Where the river divides and collects 316 • Plastic bags and firefighting equipment 317
Hotel Rwanda and the road by the river 319 • Letter from ground zero 320 • What is ethnicity? 321 • A metamorphosis – a war for resources and the Nile 325 • The blame game 329 • An American clergyman at the source of the Nile 331 • A new age while the border moves 333 • Gorillas in the Mist 333 • The source of the Nile in the rainforest 335 • 'Heart of Darkness', Conrad and a biography of the Nile 337 • A snow-covered moon-mountain at the Equator 342 • King Leopold, a predatory state and Nile diplomacy 343 • The Congo Nile 346
Lake Albert or Lake Mobutu 349 • A floating border 351 • Dr. Livingstone, I presume 352 • Kingdoms and colony 354 • Self-reflection and masks 356
Rivalry at all levels 357 • The guerrilla leader who was saved by a Norwegian 359
Flirtation, blankets and water 361 • The pyramid at the source 362

The water tower in the east

Eritrea and Ethiopia

A train journey and an art deco capital at the Horn of Africa 365 • Italy as a Nile power 367 • Eritrea in exchange for a dam on the Nile 369 • The river as metaphor and border 372 • The exchange of nations 374 • Border river and war between neighbours 376 • Nuisance or peace ambassador? 378 • The water tower 379 • The Aksum kingdom and the highland 381
The limitations of the moment 383 • The monastery island, the lake and the end of the world 384
An Ethiopian philosopher and caveman 386 • Mass baptism in Bahir Dahr 387 • The holy Nile and the Scot posing as discoverer of the source 389 • The priest king Johannes and the Virgin Mary control the Nile 391 • Occupation or agreement 393 • Rome and London's secret plot 396 • Mussolini at the lake 398 • A dam and the prelude to the Second World War 399 • The Cold War and hydroplitics 401 • The water tower achieves its destiny 403 • Deep ecology, mirror and the sign of the river 404 • Bob Geldof's Ethiopia – a land without rivers 409 • The Renaissance dam 411

Conclusion

The river of history is tamed 414 • The statue in Rome 419

Appendix

About this book 423 • Timeline 427 • Notes 432 • Literature 441
About the illustrations 453 • Index of names 454